Now Accepting Nominations
Deadline: July 10, 2020
The Parent and Community Advisory Board (PCAB) is currently recruiting new members to fill several vacant positions on their board. The PCAB is looking for parents of City Schools’ students and community members who are eager to have a voice in shaping future policies for City Schools. The primary role of the PCAB is to advise the CEO and the Board of School Commissioners on issues that impact policies that govern Baltimore City Public Schools.

About PCAB
The PCAB encourages parent and community engagement with City Schools by taking the responsibility to channel information from the community to individual commissioners, the Board of School Commissioners, and the CEO administrator of City Schools.

Our Support
The PCAB accomplishes all of this through regular meetings with the CEO, Board of School Commissioners, and members of the community. Their aim is to ensure that school communities – parents, families, students, and key stakeholders are represented in the decision making process.

Next Steps & Contact
If you are interested in this opportunity please submit a resume and/or a short bio of no more than 200 words to pcab@bcps.k12.md.us.

Learn more about PCAB by visiting www.baltimorecityschools.org/pcab

Our Responsibilities
- Advising on educational policies and procedures.
- Giving suggestions for the implementation of those policies and procedures.
- Assisting administration when analyzing newly proposed and/or amended policies and procedures.
- Recommending solutions to include the views of parents and community members in the creation of policies and procedures.
- Suggesting activities that encourage better communication between City Schools, parents, and the community.
- Assisting City Schools in recognizing community resources.
- Identifying key issues and concerns that affect City Schools and publicizing state and federal policies which impact City Schools.