

Career and Technical Education:

Automotive Collision Repair

Cluster: Transportation Technologies

"It is cool to have skills that I can help others and make money while still in high school." - Student

How do I know if this pathway is right for me?

In choosing a pathway, ask yourself :
What do I enjoy doing?
What am I good at doing?
Does this pathway align with my dreams and goals?

What do I have to do to complete this course?

In this four-course sequence students will take hands on courses that include Damage Repair, Paint, and Refinishing. Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) Certification. Various and developing apprenticeship programs exist without Automotive pathways including with BGE and Johns Hopkins University. Some post secondary pathways include the Global Automotive and Maintenance Mechanic programs at CCBC.

Which Schools offer this pathway?

Mergenthaler Vocational-Technical High School

Have you ever seen a car that was fixed after an accident? If you would like to be the person fixing those cars, auto body collision/ repair could be the best fit for you. Whether you are interested in working on cars, trucks, or even ships, you'll build needed skills and earn certifications to work in the essential transportation industry.

What's the bonus?

- Optional Drivers Education
- Site visits
- Guest speakers
- Internships
- Apprenticeship

Get Certified or Licensed:

- Automotive Service Excellence (ASE) Certification

Possible Careers & Average Salaries in this Pathway:

Autobody Repair $45,000

Learn more about Career and Technical Education (CTE) pathways at: www.baltimorecityschools.org/cte

Baltimore City Public Schools does not discriminate based on race, ethnicity, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, marital status, pregnancy/parenting status, disability, veteran status, genetic information, age, or other legally or constitutionally protected attributes or affiliations, as outlined in Board Policies JBA, JBB, JIC, JCK, ACA, ACB, and ACD.

Full nondiscrimination notice: www.baltimorecityschools.org/notice-nondiscrimination