Instructions on Filing a Complaint of Discrimination

If you believe you have been treated differently because of your race or color, national origin or ethnicity, religion of creed, sex or gender, age, physical or mental disability, genetic information, marital status, sexual orientation, or gender identify or expression you have the right to file a complaint with the Office of EEO and Title IX Compliance.

You must file a complaint within 90 days of the most recent act(s) of discrimination or harassment.

After you file the complaint, it will be investigated. This process can take some time.

You are required to keep the Office of EEO and Title IX Compliance informed of any changes in your status, such as a change in schools or department reassignment, home address or phone changes, leave status, etc. You will also be expected to cooperate with the investigation.

Filing your Complaint:

Please complete all parts of the form, especially your contact information.

When selecting the basis of your complaint, consider the following definitions:

Race – whether you are Caucasian, African-American, Asian, or Native American

Sex or Gender – male or female

Sexual Harassment – the harassment is of a sexual nature and is unwelcome.

National Origin or Ethnicity – whether you identify yourself as originally from another country or specific culture; you may also speak another language as a first language.

Age – under Federal law, you must be 40 years of age or older. Under Maryland Law, you are protected against age discrimination at the age when you can legally be employed.

Sexual Orientation – whether you are homosexual, bi-sexual, or heterosexual

Religion or Creed – whether you practice a particular faith or belief system
Veteran Status – you are currently or have formerly been a member of one of the Uniformed Services, e.g. Navy, Army, Coast Guard, Air Force, National Guard, etc.

Disability – whether you have a physical or mental disability

Color – whether the color of your skin is a factor in the treatment you describe

Pregnancy – whether you are pregnant, expecting to become pregnant, or not

Genetic Information – whether you have been identified with a specific genetic condition and treated differently because of that information.

Marital Status – whether you are single, married, divorced or widowed

Gender Identify/Expression – whether you identify yourself as a gender different from how you were born.

Retaliation – Have you previously complained to your supervisor, the Office of Human Capital, the Office of EEO and Title IX Compliance of other equal employment enforcement agency of discriminatory acts by this/these individual(s).
