

Career and Technical Education:

Teacher Academy of Maryland

Cluster: Human Resource Services

"This pathway leads me to my dream of becoming a teacher."- Student

Good teachers inspire, educate and leave a lasting impression. The Teacher Academy of Maryland (TAM) allows students to learn the foundations of both Teaching as a Profession, and Human Growth and Development- with the opportunity to earn college credits and intern on the pursuit to becoming educators. If this sounds like a great fit for you, pick TAM as your career pathway.

What's the bonus?

- Two- Four Year College
- Internships
- Opportunities for career mentorship from industry professionals

Get Certified or Licensed:

- Para-Pro

Possible Careers & Average Salaries in this Pathway:

K-12 Teacher: $62,000

Paraprofessional: $37,612

How do I know this pathway is right for me?

In choosing a pathway, ask yourself :
What do I enjoy doing?
What am I good at doing?
Does this pathway align with my dreams and goals?

What do I have to do to complete this course?

This four-course sequence allows graduates to go directly into employment as a Teacher's Assistant or continue towards their professional teaching license at several college programs.

Courses include:

- Human Growth and Development
- Foundations of Curriculum and Instruction
- Teaching as a Profession
- Education Academy Internship

Which Schools offer this pathway?

Patterson High School
Western High School

